

I am a hard of hearing young person (age 28). I do not think that enough programs on television are closed captioned. This is upsetting, to not be able to watch shows that the rest of my family can hear. To have to forgo that simple pleasure that so many people take for granted. I also wish that movie theaters would offer infared systems and captioning. I am unable to go see a movie in my own home town.